Goose Fayre scaled down in wet weather

■ VOLUNTEERS dressed in medieval costume set up stalls in Colyford Memorial Hall. Right, Exeter Morris entertain and, below, town crier Derek Wenn welcomes the crowd

Francesca Evans
Reporter | francesca@viewnews.co.uk

THE annual Colyford Goose Fayre had to be scaled back and moved to the village hall on Saturday, due to wet weather.

Heavy rain overnight meant it was too wet underfoot to hold the event at its usual venue of Springfields, so a smaller version of the traditional fayre was staged at Colyford Memorial Hall.

Crowds still flocked to the event with many attending in medieval costume.

A number of food and craft stalls set up inside and volunteers in the kitchen were kept busy serving teas, coffees and hot dogs. Exeter Morris entertained outside and the Colyford Mummers still went ahead with their annual Goose Fayre play.

Colyton Link to host tea party for residents

COLYTON and Colyford residents are invited to Colyton Link's annual tea party on Wednesday, October 11th.

The party will be held in Colyton Town Hall from 2.30pm, with entertainment from guitarist Gilly King, a spread of tea, sandwiches, scones and cakes and a raffle.

If you require transport to the event, call the Link co-ordinator by October 4th on 0300 123 3345.

All welcome at photo club's celebrations

SIDMOUTH Photographic Club will be celebrating its 80th anniversary with a gala night at Colyford Memorial Hall.

The event will be held on Saturday, October 14th with entertainment from Neil Diamond tribute act Michael Douglas.

Tickets for the evening cost £10, including a light buffet, and there will be a bar to purchase drinks. There will also be a competition for the best photograph taken on the night and a cup will be awarded to the winner in November.

All are welcome and tickets are available at Colyford Post Office or by phoning Margaret on 07753 911 751.

Guides to host book sale

THE 1st Colyton Guides will be hosting their annual second-hand book sale on Saturday, October 14th at Colyton Town Hall.

The event will be held from 9.30am to 1pm and the books will be sorted A-Z in fiction and non-fiction. Tea, coffee and cakes will also be available, and there will be a raffle and games for children.

The Guides are currently looking for additional leaders. The group currently has active Rainbow and Brownie units, both of which would like extra help, but no one to run the Guide unit. Anyone interested would be welcome to attend the book sale to talk to volunteers.

Protection for 160 homes as flood prevention scheme is completed

Anders Larsson
Chief reporter | anders@viewnews.co.uk

A £1 million flood prevention scheme in Axminster has been completed.

The Devon County Council (DCC) scheme in Willhay Lane, which has widened and realigned the Millbrook culvert to improve its capacity and flow of water, now provides vital protection to more than 160 homes.

A new structure has fully enclosed part of the flood-prone channel and earlier phases of the scheme enabled the construction of a flood defence wall and the installation of a debris grill upstream of the culvert beneath Willhay Lane.

The channel downstream of the railway towards the main River Axe has also been widened.

During severe storms in 2012, more than 40 properties were flooded, with The Cricketers and Willhay Lane the main areas affected.

The start of the prevention scheme was delayed more than once, but has now been completed.

Councillor Roger Croad, DCC Cabinet member with responsibility for flooding, said: "I'm sure these improvements will be welcomed by the local residents in this part of Axminster who have suffered flooding in the past.

"This has been one of our priority schemes to reduce risk and it has improved the standard of protection up to a one in 100-year flood event."

Councillor Ian Hall, DCC councillor for Axminster, said: "These improvements have removed the bottleneck where the Millbrook approaches Willhay Lane and the rail culvert.

"This now reduces the risk of flooding to around 160 homes.

"I recently inspected the area and would like to say a great job has been completed and I would also like to thank Devon County Council, East Devon District Council and my predecessor Andrew Moulding for all the work involved to see this project come to fruition – a real team effort."

The work has been carried out by contractor South West Highways.

Judi and Gus help solicitors raise funds for charity

THE dynamic duo of former BBC Radio Devon and TV presenter Judi Spiers and her sidekick Gus Honeybun were guests of honour at a Scott Rowe Solicitors coffee morning in Axminster.

The event was held to raise funds for Hospiscare.

Lantern workshops to light up Christmas parade

LIGHT Up Axminster is hoping for a big turnout for Christmas lantern workshops this month. A lantern parade will be part of the programme for the Christmas lights switch-on event on Friday, November 24th.

Light Up Axminster chairman Cindy Furse said: "We would love to have as many local people involved in the project as possible, so if you can make any of the workshops we would love to see you there.

"The first two workshops are our 'Kick Start' workshops. "These will be an introduction to the project, information on how everyone can get involved and there will be some fun arts activities to take part in.

"We would love people to come along, share their memories and stories of life in Axminster, old photos or memorabilia that can be used as a starting point for the story of the parade or just come and find out more about us."

The workshops will take place on Wednesday, October 11th from 6.30pm-8.30pm in the former Lawson's premises – and Sunday, October 15th from 1pm- 3pm in Axminster Heritage Centre.

Mrs Furse added: "Please let me know if you intend on coming to either or both workshops, so I can make sure we have plenty of tea and coffee.

"All workshops are free of charge and suitable for all ages.

"Please feel free to pass this information on to anyone you think will be interested in coming along. I look forward to seeing you there."

Acceptance recommended for six house plan

PLANNERS are backing a bid to build six houses on a plot of land known as Allwood at King Edward Road in Axminster.

Their recommendation goes against that of Axminster Town Council and neighbours, who say the proposal constitutes overdevelopment of the site, and would aggravate parking problems.

ACL Properties withdrew its original application to build eight dwellings, but have returned with a proposal for three blocks of semi-detached dwellings with one parking space per dwelling.

Axminster Town Council recommended refusal, saying: "Six dwellings on this site still constitutes gross overdevelopment.

"An allocation of only one parking space is completely inadequate and contrary to the Local Plan.

"Most families now have at least two (and if adult children are still living at home, often more) cars.

"This part of Axminster already experiences considerable on-street parking problems.

"These problems would be aggravated by the inadequate parking provision proposed.

"This is a new-build development and every opportunity should be taken to ensure that it generates no demand for on-street parking."

The council, and people living near the site, also say that a number of neighbouring properties would suffer from overlooking and a loss of light.

Sixteen people have made formal representations to East Devon District Council (EDDC) objecting to the application.

Planners, however, recommend approval subject to completion of a legal agreement to secure a contribution towards off-site affordable housing.

A planners' report said: "The plot is a triangular shape with sloping topography with ground levels that fall toward Woodmead Road.

"The plans as submitted are indicative but illustrate three blocks of semi-detached dwellings with allocated parking at a ratio of one space per dwelling.

"Taking into account that there are examples of high density housing nearby the proposal would not be out of character within this context.

"A suitable separation distance between the adjacent properties and the proposed development would prevent any significant loss off amenity to neighbouring occupiers.

"At the time of writing there has not been a formal consultee response from the Highway Authority, so this will have to be verbally updated at the Development Committee meeting."

An outline planning application is submitted to determine if the type of proposal is suitable for the site in question.

If it is, a full and more detailed application must be submitted.

EDDC Development Management Committee dealt with the application as Pulman's Weekly News went to press yesterday.

New garden space for River Cottage canteen

RIVER Cottage Canteen in Axminster held a barbecue and networking event to celebrate the opening of their garden.

The garden is a work in progress and will become fully operational next summer, supervisor William Stringer explained.

Head chef Matt Downing made sure nobody was left hungry, providing free pork baps throughout the three-hour event during the afternoon of Friday, September 22nd.

Staff and customers are pictured at the start of the barbecue.

Fascinating series of talks to entertain historical society

AXMINSTER Historical Society's winter talk programme features some very knowledgeable speakers.

Anyone with an interest in local history is welcome to attend the "informal and friendly" evenings on the first Wednesday of each month at Axminster Heritage Centre.

The first talk will be given by Derek Gore, author and an Honorary Fellow of the University of Exeter, who will provide what the society describes as "a more balanced view" of Vikings in the West Country.

Axminster Historical Society secretary Peter ball said: "Aside from the usual accounts of Viking raids, he uses studies of place-names, personal names, metalwork and stone sculptures from the area.

"This gives a more balanced view of Scandinavian activities and their impact on our everyday lives here today."

Subsequent talks cover a variety of subjects, all with some local flavour: County Archaeologist Bill Horner asks whether the Roman occupation of Devon be considered as Civilisation or Enslavement? Charlotte Coles will reveal objects and remains from Devon shipwrecks and a presentation from Dr Kate Osborne will give an insight into the daily lives of Exeter's Tudor bakers.

Membership covering all the talks is £10 and everyone is welcome.

The first get-together starts at 7.30pm on Wednesday, October 4th in The Bradshaw Meeting Room at Axminster Heritage Centre.

Drama club hit 'Spamalot' leaves

AXMINSTER Drama Club wowed audiences last week with their hilarious show, 'Spamalot'.

Audience members were rolling in the aisles as the Monty Python farce impressed the watching crowds to give the drama club another successful show.

Richard Walters took on the lead role of King Arthur and was ably assisted by his squire and fellow lead actor Ian Craig as Patsy.

The show is the onstage version of the classic film 'Monty Python and the Holy Grail', which sees King Arthur bring together his Knights of the Roundtable, Lancelot (Tom Glover), Robin (Adam Chudley), Bedevere (Tim Leat) and Galahad (Tucker Stevens), in search for the cup used by Jesus Christ at the Last Supper.

The gang is helped and hindered along the way by several iconic characters, including the Lady of the Lake and The Knights who say Ni.

Richard Walters was brilliant as King Arthur and led the cast brilliantly with his best Graham Chapman impression and impeccably delivered the punchlines to some classic Python jokes.

The production opened with a show of wits between Arthur, Patsy, Robin and Lancelot and from there the jokes were firing, with each one landing a knock out blow. Tom Glover as the sexually-confused Lancelot and Adam Chudley as the nervous knight Robin both were in show-stealing form throughout.

The main cast was supported by an able roster including plenty of young faces, who could soon be leading their own musicals one day.

The Lady of the Lake, later revealed to be Guinevere from the King Arthur myth, was played by Nicky Sweetland, a musical theatre veteran in these parts, whose fantastic voice and diva attitude had the audience whooping and cheering when she was on stage.

A special mention goes to Axe Valley head boy James Windsor, who played the well known roles of Prince Herbert and the Knight Ni, and the pressure of some of the more quotable Monty Python characters, could've weighed heavy on a young performers' shoulders but the youngster handled it with aplomb.

THEATRE REVIEW
By Peter Hodges

All in all the laugh-out-loud show kept the audiences happy and those that attended the Sunday matinee were given an extra treat, as television's Pauline Quirke made a brief cameo appearance. Other local figures who made cameo appearances were Jim Rowe, Axminster's Lord of the Manor, Councillor Andrew Moulding, Councillor Paul Hayward and the mayor, Councillor Jeremy Walden.

Chard Carnival

It's Carnival time in Chard once again!

OUR 50th Chard Carnival is nearly upon us and it won't be long until a whole host of floats and colourful characters will light up the streets of Chard. We will start our carnival week with a lighting of the beacon (Crowshute Link) on Monday 9th October at 6pm where we will have hot chocolate available to keep you warm and all are welcome.

Things are a little different this year for our children's carnivals it now has a new route it will still be on the same day as our main procession on Saturday 14th October starting at Manor Court School at 12noon. The route will be along Crowshute Link, down The High Street, Along Boden Street and finishing in The Lace Mill Car Park. This should take less than 45 minutes and roads will be closed at this time using a "Rolling Road block".

The carnival started in 1967, which means this year, is our 50th Year and we have invited many Carnival queens and princess from the last 50 years to join us on an open top bus in the parade.

The carnival has raised well over £100,000 for local charities and organisations, including Chard Christmas Lights, Children's Hospice South West, Chard Hospital, chard rugby club, brownies, scouts, local carnival clubs, theatre clubs, and all the local schools.

Chard Carnival will again have Official Carnival Sellers who will be selling flashing wands, batons, windmills, whistles and other carnival merchandise, with prices ranging from £2 to £4. The sellers will be found at official stalls along the carnival route at Tesco Roundabout, The Guildhall, Manor Court School & Old town (mill lane) There will also have two vans at the beginning of the procession. Carnival toys will also be available at Manor Court School, Avishayes School, Redstart School & Tatworth School on Thursday & Friday after School in the playground. The purpose of selling our own merchandise is because each year street traders come along to our carnival selling their items but Chard Carnival Committee doesn't benefit from any money collected despite recent press claims that traders do donate to the carnival, Chard have never benefitted. By selling our own merchandise Chard Carnival Committee will be able to donate more money to the local community.

Chard Carnival quiz night will be at the Lordleaze Hotel on Sunday 8th October at 7pm. Our Decorated Window Competition begins on the 9th October until 15th October, around several shops are going to be decorating their shop windows with a 50 years carnival inspired theme to set the mood in the town for carnival week. Don't forget Spot the wrong "UN" which will be taking place from Monday 9th October until 15thOctober entry forms can be found in the centre of the Chard Carnival programme which is available at the Guildhall or from a committee member.

Thousands of pounds have already been raised to put on the spectacle. The Carnival Procession starts at Numatic in Tapstone Road before it heads up East Street, Convent Link, Old Town, Duck Lane, Crowshute Link, High Street, Fore Street, down East Street and finishes back at Tapstone Road. This year will see the biggest Chard Carnival has seen for many years with 70 entries entered so far (there is still time to enter!) A team of Harley Davidson motorcyclists will kick the main parade off at around 7.15 – 7.30pm on Saturday and it will then be followed shortly afterwards with the rest of the colorful cavalcade.

Chard Carnival Committee chairman Jason Baker said there's all the last-minute stuff to sort out, but I'm looking forward to a fantastic Carnival and obviously keeping my fingers-crossed for dry weather." If you are able to help with marshaling or could help collecting on the night please get in contact as we need as much help as possible. Many roads will be closed from 6pm on Saturday the 14th so please plan your journey and get here early!

Jason said that he hoped people would dig deep into their pockets and help donate their spare change to swell the overall collection and don't forget to chuck all of those old £1 coins into the collecting tins and trailers, as they will no longer be legal tender from Monday 15th October!

All money raised goes back into Carnival funds and is donated to local groups and organisations. Any group or organisation wishing to be considered for a donation should write to Jason via his email baker.jason@live.co.uk or call on 07736310805.

Getting Seaton to read

READING ON: Pene and Jenny

SEATON Library supervisor, Pene Davis, and Owl and Pyramid Bookshop owner, Jenny Eagles, have joined forces to make the most of Bookshop Day (Saturday October 7th) and Libraries' Week (October 9th-14th).

They have put together a programme with five events showcasing local authors, which will appeal to readers of all ages.

The programme, formally known as Seaton Reads, is as follows:

● Thursday October 5th - Open Book Group with Laurence Anholt discussing his young adult novel The Hypnotist at 7pm in Seaton Library. The event is suitable for ages 13+. Price £3.

● Saturday October 7th - 2pm. Poetry Walk with Sarah Acton, currently a Jurassic Coast poet in residence, Sarah will lead a walk finishing at Pebbles Café, pausing to enjoy poetry on the way. Suitable for adults. Mostly flat walking. Price £3.50.

10.30am Jurassic Tales with Tony Lambert. Suitable for ages 5 to 11 (and parents). Inspired by the Jurassic landscape, Tony will be talking about and reading from his short stories for children. Price £2.

2pm Amazing Brains and Time Travel with Barbara Spencer. Barbara will be talking about her novels for teenagers. Suitable for ages 11+. Price £2.

3pm Storytime and Craft Session for under 5s at Pebbles Café with Jenny Eagles. Jenny will introduce younger readers to Pip and Posy and other animal stories. Price £3 (includes a goody bag).

More information and tickets for all these events are available from Seaton Library and The Owl and Pyramid Bookshop.

Chantelle braves the shave

Anders Larsson
Reporter | anders@viewnews.co.uk

SEATON resident Chantelle Brennan has raised more than £1,100 by tackling the Brave the Shave challenge in aid of Macmillan.

Chantelle had her head shaved at The Vault Bar in Seaton and has praised everyone who supported and sponsored her.

She said: "I did this because everyone knows someone with cancer and I believe everyone should have someone to talk to and get help when they are living with cancer.

"So I decided to Brave the Shave as it is a big thing and not everyone would do it.

"I have donated my hair to the Little Princess Trust."

The trust provides real-hair wigs for children who are ill, and Chantelle added: "I would like to thank everyone for their support along the way and everyone's donations. Thank you so much."

You can help Chantelle raise even more by donating online at https://bravetheshave.macmillan.org.uk (type Chantelle Brennan into the search box), or at R.E.D.S second-hand furniture shop in Seaton.

Chantelle said: "Please just pop in, there is a donation pot."

Advertiser's announcement

INSPIRATIONAL Bridport slimmer, Kate Guppy has been following the Cambridge Weight Plan with Jodie Martinez since January this year.

Last month, Kate was entered into the National Cambridge Weight Plan Slimmer Award and has been nominated from thousands into to the final five for the Family Champion award, which is given to an individual whose weight loss has positively impacted on their family life.

The weight loss and nomination is a huge achievement but, if Kate is crowned winner on the day, then she will win an all-expenses paid trip to Monte Carlo with all the other category winners.

Kate started the journey after she began to realise that she was turning down social occasions with her three boys and husband because she did not feel confident and this was having an impact on her boys.

She even got to the point of missing out on her sons' important sports games for not wanting to stand on the sidelines with the other parents because of how she felt.

Kate said: "My life has changed so much, even in little thing like I've just taken my children to a water park and it was great going around with them instead of watching my husband do it and wishing I was having fun and not missing out on moments like that with them.

"I was the one having the most fun seeing the smiles on their faces and being able to give them a true smile back, instead of a cover up.

"I'm the mum I wanted to be now and I know I will always stay this way instead of being lethargic on the sofa."

We wish all the best to Kate for the upcoming Cambridge Weight Plan Awards ceremony which will be taking place in Telford on November 18th.

Seaton in Bloom presentations

MALCOLM Hammett won first and second prize in the allotments section

MR J Anning - best large garden

MR Munro - best medium garden

THIS year's Seaton in Bloom competition winners, silver and bronze medallists were welcomed to Marshlands by the town council for an awards ceremony.

They were presented with certificates and cups by Seaton mayor Jack Rowland.

A town council spokesperson said: "The Mayor, Councillor Jack Rowland, officiated, with councillors Peter Burrows, Martin Pigott and Heather Sanham supporting the event.

"Well done to everyone who took part and our thanks for helping to make this year's competition a real winner."

The top performers were:
Allotment: 1st Malcolm Hammett; 2nd Malcolm Hammett; 3rd Kay and Clive Francis.
Communal: 1st Mrs Trapani, Jubilee Court; 2nd Mr Hunt, Haven Court.
Medium Garden: 1st Mr Munro; 2nd Marie-Ann Talbot; 3rd Margaret Young.
Large Garden: 1st J Anning.

TINA Trapani who won first prize for a communal garden receives her certificate from the mayor

Coffee and cake funds for charity

RESIDENTS and staff at Haven Court in Seaton raised more than £300 for a worthy cause during a coffee and cake morning.

Haven Court manager Ian Beaven explained: "We have done a charity coffee and cake morning in late September for the last few years and this year we raised £335 for Seaton Friends Hospicare@home Service.

"This was raised by having a bring and buy table on display for the last few weeks, a raffle and cake auction."

New strip for Seaton U7 footballers

THE Tesco team lead by Cllr Sheridan-Shaw take to the course on last year's jaunt

Jolly Good Jaunt back this month

THE Jolly Good Jaunt is set to return to Honiton later this month and once again will give walkers the chance to raise vital funds for local charity Hospiscare.

The continued success of the Jolly Good Jaunt owes much to the support of local businesses and groups including the Deer Park Country House Hotel for the venue, the Honiton Agricultural Association for the use of their showground, Denhay Farms, Devon Hog Roast and Honiton Tesco for providing lunch.

Go Outdoors in Exeter are this year offering a 10 percent discount to walkers who produce their registration letter.

Tesco Honiton have played a massive part in promoting and supporting the Jaunt since its inception and this year are looking to enter a team of 30 staff members.

Tesco manager and town councillor Duncan Sheridan-Shaw said: "The Tesco Honiton team are personally very proud of the work we have done for Hospiscare.

"We see the Jolly Good Jaunt as a staple of our community work – we look forward to it every year".

Entering for the first time this year are the staff members at the new Premier Inn along with their dogs.

Within this team is Jen Beckenham, who has already demonstrated her enthusiasm for the charity by sky diving from 15,000ft!

For those that can't quite manage 7.5 miles, there is a new Jolly Good Nature Trail, offering children fun activities, giving the opportunity to explore and learn about nature.

Entry to the Nature Trail is £10 per child (age 5-13 years) and £5 for accompanying adults. Spaces are limited and it is recommended you book your time slot in advance by calling 01392 688020.

Having completed either the jaunt or the nature trail, the Moonshine Serenaders, a novelty jug swing band, will entertain whilst everyone enjoys a well-deserved lunch.

The jaunt takes place on Sunday, October 29th and to take part visit www.jollygood jaunt. co.uk

Hospiscare is a local charity, providing free, high quality care and support to people with a progressive life-limiting illness, and those close to them in Exeter, East and Mid Devon.

JOSE Colony Beavers took to the streets outside their Honiton base once again, to spruce up the Dowell Street planters. Scout leader Helen Turner said: "They were helped by parent helpers and the whole area was weeded and swept. New plants have been put in the planters so it will be nice and colourful to look at whilst waiting for the lights to change to green." The Scouts help maintain the planters, making sure they look their best throughout the year.

Halloween fun at the THG

THIS Halloween the Thelma Hulbert Gallery in Honiton is inviting residents and visitors to spend a spooky evening there.

The fun-packed evening on Saturday, October 28th will include art activities, as well as food and music, and coincides with the gallery's exhibition 'Frances Hatch – Red Earth Under My Nails'.

Families are invited to make their own spooky animation. Kids can also get up close to lizards, snakes and spiders, and there will also be scary face painting and glitter tattoos.

Delicious local food and drink will be on offer including wood-fired pizzas and Caribbean treats, hot chocolate for little trick-or-treaters and there will be music and a bar.

THG curator Angela Blackwell said: "Come in your best Halloween costume for some scary fun! Last year's Halloween party won a national award for best 'Family Event' in the Family Arts Festival.

"Visitors liked its fantastic family atmosphere and the range of activities for everyone to enjoy; it continues to be one of the highlights of our year."

This family-friendly event is part of the national Museums at Night festival, which runs from October 26th to October 28th.

The Halloween Party is from 5pm-9pm (art activities till 8pm). Admission and activities are free but donations will be welcomed.

Village fete boost for two charities

■ DEVON AIR AMBULANCE: Jon Wyon-Brown, Ruth and Don Waterhouse, Paula Wyon-Brown, Gilbert Churchill

THE Hawkchurch Fete committee presented cheques totaling £700 to Devon Air Ambulance Trust (DAAT) and The Project.

The impressive total was raised from this year's village fete grand raffle.

Ruth and Don Waterhouse accepted a £350 cheque on behalf of DAAT.

Debbie Humberstone accepted the other £350 on behalf of The Project, which supports people with mental health issues.

Both charities were very grateful for the boost to their funds.

Online information about the two organisations are available at www.theprojectyp.org.uk and www.daat.org

WW1 Commemorative dinner

ABOUT 60 members and guests assembled in Kilmington Village Hall on September 16th for the annual WW1 Commemorative Dinner.

Lesley Rew and her team had dressed the hall appropriately and there was a buzz of conversation as people took their seats to listen to the themed talk by Angus Falconer.

Mr Falconer comprehensively covered the significant events of 1917 – "A Year of Dramatic Events".

Without recourse to notes, he spoke for nearly an hour and eloquently described the developments across a number of fronts in Italy, Russia, Salonika, Mesopotamia and Palestine, as well as France and Belgium.

For good measure, he explained how Germany had tried to persuade Mexico to open a front against the USA in a bid to discourage the USA from involvement in Europe.

After the talk, a supper of cottage pie was served, prepared by members under the guidance of Claire Dainton, and this was followed by a meringue roulade.

Branch chairman Stafford Seward thanked Mr Falconer, the catering team and all members who had contributed to a happy and successful evening.

■ ROYAL British Legion members and guests in Kilmington enjoy the WW1 commemorative evening

Hospital closures for minimal financial gain

■ I THANK Mr Allen for his recent letter outlining why NOT to vote Tory. The reason for the CCG closure of our local hospitals was for "cost saving". Now Mr Allen says there will be minimal financial gain so why close our local hospitals?

Whilst Mr Allen wishes to re-write history let's be clear our local hospitals have closed because of Tory government ideology, executed by a Tory created CCG quango, managed through (without scrutiny) by Tory district and county councillors.

As Secretary of the Tiverton & Honiton Constituency Labour Party I am unaware of any communication from Mr Allen for discussions opposing these closures, in fact had we had a change of government in June these policies of hospital closures would have been squashed and CCG disbanded.

I trust voters will remember these hospital closures when electing future district councillors.

STEPHEN KOLEK
Honiton

Tories must accept responsibility

■ CLLR Mike Allen's letter (View September 26th) sets new standards of hypocrisy. No doubt a number of Conservative voters and their representatives were unhappy about local hospital closures - but even more were not.

This was brought home at the EDDC meeting to depose Paul Diviani for supporting closure against the wishes of his colleagues - a motion defeated by the votes of Tory councillors.

One might sympathise with their disillusion; but they need to take responsibility for voting into power the most divisive, destructive oligarchy of recent times. The rest of us need to direct our support well away from Tory hegemony and vote for the many, not the few.

The Gateway to Nowhere?

■ I AM writing to express my dismay at the lack of any form of public transport provided at Axminster Station on a Sunday evening to meet the London trains.

Far from the grand name of 'Gateway to the Jurassic Coast'- I would call it 'The Gateway to Nowhere'.

Arriving back from London at 8.06 p.m. last Sunday expecting to find our booked taxi waiting to pick us up after a long journey from Edinburgh, no-one appeared.

There were three other fares waiting, in vain, for taxis. I walked home in the dark to pick up our car - luckily we are within walking distance of the station, otherwise I don't know what we would have done at that time of night. On returning to the station to pick up the luggage, we discovered an Austrian couple on a rail holiday waiting for a bus to take them to Lyme Regis. They had not been informed that buses no longer run in September. They had no means of getting to Lyme Regis and nowhere to go. The station was closed, there were no obvious signs of a nearby hotel, what would they do?

We decided the only decent thing to do was to take them to Lyme Regis ourselves. They told us that in every small town and village in Austria it is possible to hire a taxi at any time of the day or night and on any day of the week.

I felt absolutely ashamed at the lack of transport provided in Axminster. It not only reflects very badly on the town, but also on the way in which the UK treats its tourists.

If Axminster wants to attract tourists, then it should buck up its ideas. We are living in the 21st century - not in the dark ages. It's time everyone in this town woke up to the fact that tourism is good for business and we should be encouraging tourists to come here, not frighten them away.

I can imagine this young couple's report to Trip Advisor: "Don't go to Axminster - no taxis; no buses; no nothing - it's the gateway to nowhere."

ROSEMARY A. FELL
Axminster

Welcome to Seaton - or maybe not

■ I HAD to smile to myself at the recent front page story regarding the impending loss of the much loved vintage open top bus, the main reason cited as complaining by residents choosing to retire next to a purpose built coach park?

I don't blame the owner's response over the wrecking of a much loved Jurassic coast attraction which benefited locals, visitors and the local economy. It is a sad reflection of our coastal society which tries to be a resort where the majority of residents are baby boomers, over 60, who feel only themselves matter.

The removal of the Grove nightclub meant younger residents and visitors were erased from the town. The 2016 EU referendum was the first proof of the ignorance of many seemingly intelligent people, fearing thousands of Turkish immigrants descending on our country was a bigger issue than the loss of Seaton hospital beds, or the disgusting need of food banks to help the needy in every town.

Two elections this year could have set our region and country on a safer future path but it would have meant nobody voting Conservative - which clearly is impossible for many, particularly baby boomers.

In my 2017 distant memory we had lovely hot sunny spell and I was astonished to find the EDDC gestapo were policing Seaton seafront to remove dog loving visiting tourists from our promenade. What exactly can you do with your pets? It is illegal, and rightly so, to leave them to die in a sweltering car.

Perhaps welcome to Seaton signs should have a huge caveat: only visit if you are over 60; read the Sun, Express or Mail; truly believe that 17 million voters making a car crash future for 65 million makes you the democracy; don't stay long but spend lots; definitely no dogs or intelligent people of any age, colour or European country are welcome.

Send a little love this Christmas

■ WE are about to start filling up Christmas shoe boxes again. Need is increasing as more and more children having nothing to call their own while living in hovels, on the streets, in makeshift shelters or similar, in bitter winter weather.

Please start early filling up your boxes with warm hats, gloves and scarves, pencils and paper, sharpeners, soap, toothpaste, a comb, toy, a ball, sweets and a personal Christmas card with your love to bring an uplift of joy to sad and lonely hearts.

Samaritan's Purse would also appreciate a gift of £5 (on top) inside of each box to help cover the huge costs of transporting these boxes to 17 countries.

I have new informative leaflets ready for you to collect in my porch at 55 Scalwell Lane, Seaton, where you can also leave completed and part-filled boxes and bundles of fillers - large or small - until November 5th.

Be happy as you make these dear children happy.

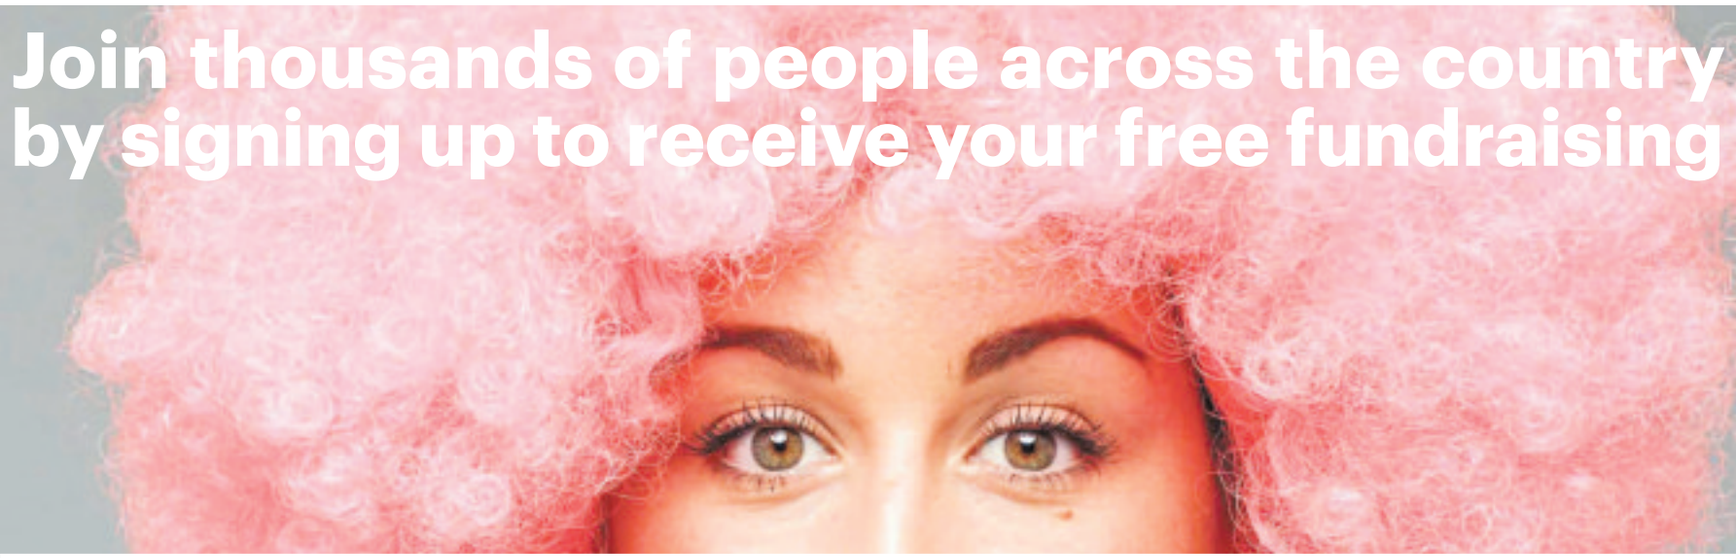
wear it pink

breast cancer now

For a future where everyone with breast cancer lives

WEAR IT PINK

Friday 20 October



BREAST Cancer Now's wear it pink day is one of the biggest fundraising events in the UK. Taking place on Friday 20 October during Breast Cancer Awareness Month, thousands of amazing people will wear it pink in their communities, schools or work places for the UK's largest breast cancer charity, Breast Cancer Now.

And since our first event in 2002, together we've raised over £30 million for our life-saving research. Research that's working to discover how to prevent breast cancer, how to detect it earlier and how to treat it effectively at every stage so we can stop the disease taking lives.

£30.1 million raised to date

Thank You!

About wear it pink

WHEN you join the hundreds of thousands of people who take part in wear it pink, you become part of a collective force of scientists, supporters and people affected by breast cancer. Together, by funding cutting-edge research, our aim is to ensure no one dies from breast cancer by 2050.

Every year, wear it pink raises around £2 million during Breast Cancer Awareness Month for the UK's largest breast cancer charity, Breast Cancer Now. How? It's simple – we just ask you to wear something pink and donate whatever you can. We use the money you raise to fund world-class breast cancer researchers across the UK and Ireland. Together, they're working to discover how to prevent breast cancer, how to detect it earlier and how to treat it effectively at every stage so we can stop the disease taking lives.

GREAT REASONS TO WEAR IT PINK

- Have fun with your family, friends and colleagues
- It's an easy way to raise money to fund cutting-edge research
- You can help us ensure no one dies from breast cancer by 2050

So whether you're a first timer or a seasoned wear it pinker, get involved and sign up now for your free fundraising pack.

AXMINSTER was recently voted one of the top 20 market towns in the UK where its high street and businesses were praised. But slightly overlooked were the range of businesses on 'The Other Side of Town'.

With an eclectic range of shops across Chard Street, Victoria Place, George Street, West Street and Lyme Street, Axminster has plenty of hidden surprises waiting to be found.

If you are wanting to find a great quality musical instrument there is Axe Music or if you are looking for some new ink, there is Chris' Tat Shack.

COURTESY CARE

COURTESY CARE, formally Needy Care in Seaton, is based in Chard Street, Axminster. Even though they are now in Axminster they still deliver to Seaton and the whole East Devon area; rest assured you needn't go without!

Courtesy Care is your local stockist that can meet all your sales, repair, servicing, and hire needs. It's not just brand new stock either in the mobility side of the shop; if you're on a budget, reconditioned scooters, which will run as good as new, are available too.

Courtesy Care offers a very personal service, offering to pick up and drop off your scooters, as well as lending you one free of charge if you rely on one while they repair yours. The service doesn't end there either, if you breakdown, give him a call and he will come and help you out. If you're only after a scooter for a day, hire is also available to help you on your days out. If you then decide that you love the scooter you hire so much that you want to keep it, they will take the hire cost off the total price!

Don't forget that Courtesy Care is your local stockist for all the equipment and aids to make your home life easier. Daily living aids ranging from bathing to incontinence products are always in stock. If you can't find what you need, Courtesy Care will order it for you, there's not much that they can't get hold of.

Courtesy Care also provides care in the community, with a team of 34 fully qualified, CRB checked carers. They have both male and female carers that are all very experienced. Even if you only need a carer to look after a loved one for a few hours while you pop out, the team are there to help you. Whether it's a one off for a few hours, or full time care you are looking for, give Courtesy Care a call now.

CIRRUS VAPE

NICK MCCANCE and Carrie Tyers are the two people behind Cirrus Vape Shop. They opened a vape shop in Honiton 2 years ago which led to the opening of the Axminster shop in January 2017. Mr McCance explained the expansion by saying: "Travelling customers to the Honiton shop asked if we could open in Axminster."

Nick and Carrie looked into it and decided to go-ahead.

Cirrus Vape use tested liquids and stock that adhere to the latest regulations and warn customers to be aware of cheap imitation products that may potentially cause unnecessary harm.

Opening times are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday 10am to 6pm, Saturday 10am to 4.30pm and Sunday 11pm to 4pm. For more information you can ring Nick and Carrie on 01297 598097.

AXE MUSIC

AXE Music is a small, family run, retail music shop in the heart of Axminster. As well as being a one stop shop for all your guitar needs, Axe Music now offer guitar and ukulele lessons in store or in Lyme Regis! The lessons are in conjuction with Brian Street music. The shop is run by Andy Cable, a guitarist with over 35 years playing experience. Andy is a fully trained guitar technician and able to offer repairs, servicing, set ups and custom alterations to just about all makes of guitar. He offers a personal service, catering for everybody, from the first time beginner to the most experienced professionals. Axe Music is now the main dealer for Fender Squier guitars and now Peavey USA, and has a vast range of second hand instruments and amplification. The shop also holds a large selection of tuition books, ranging from Violin to Banjos! Andy is originally from Lyme Regis, but has been living in Axminster for the past 23 years. He has been trading since 2005, seven years of which he was based in Miltons Yard, before moving to his current premises in George Street in 2013. He started out repairing guitars just as a hobby, but 25 years later he has turned it to a big part of his successful business. Andy has made a name for himself locally with the well-known band The Relics, and has been playing guitar and singing semi professionally for more than 35 years. He is always happy to offer help and advice, so why not just pop in for a chat?

CHRIS' TAT SHACK

EVER considered getting a tattoo? Have you had one in the past and fancy getting it touched up, or another one to add to your collection? Get yourself down to Chris' Tat Shack for an experience you won't get anywhere else...

The reasons for choosing the Tat Shack are obvious; Chris Williams is well known in the area, in the country, and even internationally as a master tattooist. Without a doubt the service and artistry he provides are second to none. However, the experience you can get from his studio are what makes the difference!

Whether you bring an original design or choose from one of over 500,000 available in the shop from start to finish Chris will guide you through the process with a laugh. He is of course a model professional but he aims to give each client a great time and leave them with ink they'll be more than happy with.

Food and drink can be ordered at anytime from local cafes and will be delivered to the studio, and Chris encourages people to bring their own music along, whatever their vibe.

For any information on the tattoos and piercings available give Chris a ring on 01297 34113 or call in and see him at Regis House, Lyme Street, Axminster – Chris' Tat Shack is the place to go for a good time..!

A bark with a bite to match

Ferocious Dog bring the Hell Hounds to Honiton

"Ferocious Dog are the new noise on the block – and are surprising everyone with their rapid ascent. There is no way they're following any hipster templates – fronted by a big burly man with a mohican who sings impassioned political songs of broken Britain whilst his band seethes like a punky Levellers – they are the music business's worst nightmare – a great band who are going to make it without anyone's permission".

(John Robb, Louder Than War, Glastonbury, 5th July 2016).

DURING 2017, Ferocious Dog has been playing slots at some of the UK's and European favourite festivals. Headlining a few along the way. They are on fire, playing to some of the largest audiences of their career, (recently in the Czech Republic), The Colour of Ostrava Festival. They are heading back to Europe to play in Spain, Belgium and Holland later this year.

Ferocious Dog are a full-on six-piece band that encompass folk infused with rock, reggae and Celtic vibrations. The combination of instruments creates a palette of sound that offers infinite variations: going in hard to get the audience up and moving, or slipping into melodic passages and dub-like fusions. The songs are deeply personal and their fans can really identify with the words. Dan Booth, on fiddle, and John Leonard playing just about everything with strings, bring a huge amount of intricacy to the breakneck pace of their songs. Les Carter (ex Carter USM) on guitar and the rhythm section of Alex Smith and John Alexander hold things together brilliantly, and with Ken Bonsall's lyrics and sheer likability, you have a whole greater than the sum of its parts. Ferocious Dog are well known and popular for their high octane live performances.

The role of the infamous Hell Hounds must not be underestimated - an ever-growing legion of fans who follow the band up and down the country. They form Totem poles of people, in the mosh pit. They bring energy and passion to the gig whilst always welcoming the less initiated members of the crowd to join in and swell their ranks – everyone has a ball.

Ferocious Dog play live at the Beehive, Honiton, on Friday, October 13th. Doors open 8pm. Tickets are £15 in advance or £17 on the door. For more details call 01404 384050 or visit www.beehivehoniton.co.uk

An awesome October coming up at The Beehive!

View from the beehive
with Wendy Van Der Plank

YES folks we have an amazing autumn season lined up and a whopping big thank you must go out to all our fantastic volunteers, it's pretty humbling to see how much time, love and energy they put into their community venue- Come and meet them!

The Royal Opera House Live screening of "La Boheme" is here at 7.15pm on Tuesday, October 3rd, Puccini's romantic depiction of bohemian Paris, and a love story drawn from everyday life, won't leave a dry eye in the house, so be sure to bring your tissues along!

Continuing with an interesting selection of cinema this month we have Bill Nighy and Olivia Cooke starring in "The Limehouse Golem"(15) which offers old-school Hammer-style horror anchored by rich period detail and strong work from a solid cast on Saturday, October 7th at 7.30pm. The following Saturday (14th) at 7.30pm we have Maudie (12A) which charts the unlikely romance between Maud Lewis, a Canadian folk artist who blossoms in later life, and the curmudgeonly recluse, Everett. Superb performances from Sally Hawkins and Ethan Hawke. A rousing and very timely sequel to Al Gore's An Inconvenient Truth is An Inconvenient Sequel-Truth to Power (PG) which we are showing on Saturday, October 21st at 7.30pm. A decade after An Inconvenient Truth (2006) brought climate change into the heart of popular culture comes the follow-up that shows just how close we are to a real energy revolution.

The Royal Ballet Live screening of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland is being shown on Monday 23rd at 7.15pm. Follow Alice down the rabbit hole in Christopher Wheeldon's exuberant ballet, inspired by Lewis Carroll's much-loved book. Expect an explosion of colour, stage magic and inventive, sophisticated choreography.

Finally we have Victoria and Abdul (PG) starring Judi Dench on Friday, October 27th at 7.30pm, and then Daniel Craig has great fun playing bad guy, Joe Bang, a demolition man in Logan Lucky (12A) a comedy, heist movie, on Friday, November 3rd. Our Nostalgic Cinema screening is Hobson's Choice (U) at 2pm on Saturday, October 28th.

Great gigs as well as our Acoustic café at 8pm on Wednesday, October 11th, begin with the awesome Sheelanagig and their unique blend of Balkan Folk mayhem, supported by lovely local singer/songwriters Jemima & Johnathan Farey on Friday, October 6th at 8pm.

If you'd like tickets for the superb folk punk band, Ferocious Dog and their excellent support band "Black Water County" you'd better hurry! Friday, October 13th at 8pm.

For sheer showmanship and versatility of style you have just got to come and see and hear Tankus the Henge playing The Beehive on Friday, October 20th with fab support from Funke & the Two Tone Baby Both acts are difficult to define, so try them!

Families will be delighted to see that as a half term treat we have a magical show The Snow Dragon on Friday, October 27th at 2pm, brought to you by the same team, who recently brought The Gruffalo to Exeter.

We are really excited to be launching our new Comedy Café, compered by lovely local comedian Tom Glover with "The Comedy Avengers" on Thursday, October 12th at 8pm.

Tom has arranged a stonkingly great array of West Country Comedians for this special launch gig AND it's only a fiver if you buy tickets in advance - I already have mine! With such a selection of comedians there is sure to be something to suit all tastes and we're particularly pleased to have Marcus Gill, Honiton's very own Fishmonger and self- confessed Nerd, making his Beehive debut.

See you there and all the best from Wendy & the Beehive team.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ILMINSTER ARTS CENTRE IN OCTOBER

WITH the nights drawing in and the end of BST looming, what better theme for an autumnal exhibition than 'Light'? Renowned local group, Artists 303, return to the Gallery this October with a display of their latest work that explores just this phenomenon. Using paint, print, collage, stitch and artists' books, the group respond to light in all its glory - revealing its transformative effects on landscapes and our emotions too.

The exhibition runs from October 2nd-28th and there will be a special 'Meet the Artists' event on Sunday, October 22nd, 3-5pm, where visitors can enjoy the artworks in the company of the talented people who made them. It's a great opportunity to find out more about artistic inspiration and techniques and all are welcome. Admission is free.

Wednesday, October 25th sees the return of our hugely popular Antique and Vintage Textiles Fair. The fair is a chance to browse and buy some exquisite and truly unique textiles, curated by the specialist dealers of 'A Talent for Textiles'. This friendly and fun event is well worth checking out if you've you not been before.

■ Ken Peplowski

October's jazz line-up features a host of musical talents, ranging from some of the most established names in the business to hotly tipped young musicians. On Friday, October 13th the Arts Centre welcomes two of the world's top jazz clarinettists, Ken Peplowski and Julian Stringle, who will be playing together with the Craig Milverton Trio. Ken, who hails from Cleveland, Ohio, has an amazing jazz pedigree, having played with the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra and the Benny Goodman band, while his Brit counterpart Julian is no less distinguished - a child prodigy who made his TV debut with Acker Bilk aged just 14. This will be an evening of superlative mainstream jazz - advance booking recommended.

■ Jam Experiment

Up and comers Jam Experiment play for us on Friday, October 20th. This London-based quintet have already scooped numerous awards for their energetic, feel good approach to original compositions and arrangements of modern jazz classics and no less a legend than Alan Barnes has described them as one of the best young bands that he's ever heard. High praise indeed. Tickets are only £5 (additional donations would be appreciated) and are already being snapped up.

On Friday, October 27th top UK pianist Dave Newton returns with his trio for a modern jazz gig showcasing the talents of two highly rated young players. Andy Panayi is a baritone sax player who has already impressed on two previous visits, while Percy Pursglove is a trumpeter who is already regarded as one of the best on the UK jazz scene. Book early to ensure your place. Box Office 01460 54973. www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

Packing in to see Los Pacaminos

LOS PACAMINOS are coming to perform at Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Friday, October 13th for what should be a very special night.

At least one member of this highly respected seven-piece Americana group will be very familiar. The London-based outfit is led by one of the UK's finest and best loved vocalists- Paul Young. And he's not the only reason to part with your hard-earned cash and leave the house - some of the best musicians in the business have teamed up to present this mix of Tex-Mex classics that will have you dancing the night away!

As Paul himself says, the emphasis is good music and good times. "We sing, we dance, we love.... We drink tequila. Only the good stuff these days!" The band's sound came about because of Paul's love of the music but also the sheer joy of playing it. He says, "I first heard Ry Cooder's hybrid version of Tex-Mex, and I started to escape into a world of life down by the border, hot weather, good food... we started back in '92 and it was too much fun to stop. I love the lift you get when playing it. We're all past wanting to play or listen to music that depresses."

These guys have played with the best in the business- Queen, Tom Jones, Robbie Williams, First Aid Kit and many, many more - but now you have the chance to see them play in Lyme Regis. Los Pacaminos promise a great night out. Don't miss them!

Los Pacaminos play at the Marine Theatre on Friday, October 13th at 8pm. Tickets are £20 and a TheatreFriend discount is available. For more details or to book call 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

Charlie Hearnshaw's enchanting clarinet melodies come to Lyme

CHARLIE HEARNSHAW plays alto saxophone and also specialises in clarinet, which will add an extra timbre to the classic jazz tunes and catchy original compositions which he will play, accompanied by pianist Philip Clouts, in the intimate surroundings of the Marine Theatre Bar on Sunday, October 8th.

Hearnshaw has played, recorded and broadcast with many top jazz musicians from the UK and abroad including Don Weller, Andy Sheppard, Alan Barnes and the late great Slim Gaillard.

Charlie was born in Birmingham and moved to Devon in the Seventies to study classical clarinet, piano and composition at Dartington. Modern jazz clarinet has been his main focus and he has run his own jazz quartet since leaving music college. At the same he has worked in other genres including hot club, trad jazz, folk and rock.

He plays clarinet with Projet Brassens, who perform jazz versions of Georges Brassens' music. Over the years he has also collaborated as composer and performer with dance and theatre companies. He recently made a documentary film with original music, 'Victorian Spinning In The Twenty First Century'.

In a separate venture, Charlie has recorded clarinet and sax accompanied by various animals, birds and machines: Sheepsong and Jura Solo proving to be two of his most popular tracks in this style.

In the late nineties he met Deep House producers The Rurals and, enthused by the freedom which accompanies the style, has since recorded dozens of tracks with them on alto sax. They toured together to South Africa in 2012.

Many of Hearnshaw's compositions have an infectious Caribbean or African lilt to them, all filtered through his very melodic approach to jazz, and they have a very wide appeal.

Charlie Hearnshaw plays live at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Sunday, October 8th at 8pm. Tickets are £12 and £10, available from the box office on 01297 442138 or online at www.marinetheatre.com.

Antigone

Re-imagining of Sophocles' tragedy comes to the Marine Theatre

THE Actors of Dionysus bring their excellent production of Antigone to the Marine Theatre on Saturday, October 7th at 7.30pm.

A brother condemned to walk forever in the shadow of death. A family teetering on the brink of catastrophe. A world where one girl dares to take a stand.

This blistering new adaption sees Sophocles' tragedy re-imagined in a dystopian landscape where fate is written in code and where drones flock across the sky. Brought to life by innovative theatre company Actors of Dionysus, this production combines bold ideas with passionate and visceral physical theatre.

Part of a 10 week national tour, this performance will draw you in and pull on your heartstrings, Antigone is on at the Marine Theatre on Saturday, October 7th at 7.30pm.

Tickets are £14 full price, £12 concessions and can be bought online via the website at www.marinetheatre.com or by phoning the box office on 01297 442138 (a 10% booking fee applies online and at the tourist information centre).

Axminster Musical Theatre has something to celebrate!

AXMINSTER Musical Theatre, until recently Axminster and District Operatic Society, will be celebrating it's 75th production in November this year.

The Society was formed in 1926 and their first production was HMS Pinafore with a show each year until The Quaker Girl in 1939 when the War interrupted. Shows re-commenced in 1954 with The Quaker Girl marking this return to providing the Axminster area with one of the musical highlights of the year. There was a short break between 1961 until 1965 when the Society did not perform due to major refurbishments at the Guildhall. Since then there have been productions at The Guildhall every year.

This November will be a first for the Society when it is performing the much loved South Pacific with NODA President Nick Lawrence at the helm as director and with Ian Crew as musical director and Rachel Worsley as choreographer. Dates are Wednesday 15th to Saturday, November 18th at 7.30pm with a matinee on the Saturday at 2.30 pm. Tickets are now on sale on line from axmt.co.uk or The Archway Bookshop 01297 33595

Featured are some of the earlier programme covers and last year's The Full Monty.

Stick or Twist

KERRY GODLIMAN is back with her latest tour, 'Stick or Twist'.

Her straight talking brand of quick wit and bewilderment will be covering more of life's anomalies. Why is there a Buddha at the garden center? Why collect her children's teeth? And eventhough she can'tstand aube rgines, why is it her favourite emoji? There's loads to get sorted. Be there. She'll do all the talking.

Both an incredibly talented comedian and a phenomenal actor, Kerry is best known for her appearances on BBC's Live At The Apollo, Mock The Week, Jack Dee's Referendum HelpDesk, Channel 4's Derek and Comedy Gala in aid of Great Ormond Street Hospital'. Kerry is also a regular on Radio 4 with appearances on the esteemed News Quiz, The Now Show and Just A Minute as well as her own series Kerry's List. Kerry is currently starring in the Sky 1 series Carters Get Rich.

Kerry Goldiman brings her new show to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Friday, October 6th at 8pm.

Tickets are £15 or £12 (concessions) available by calling the box office on 01297 442138 or online at www.marinetheatre.com

Advertiser's announcment

Bee informed at Blackbury Honey Farm

YOU will all probably have heard by now about the discovery of the Asian hornet in north Devon. This hornet is a great threat as it is a voracious carnivore which preys on honeybees, bumblebees and other pollinator insects. We all need to be alert to the possibility of it having travelled into our area.

At the Honey Farm our customers have been asking us how to identify it and what to do if they see it so we have put together some information for you. We have an identification/information sheet for you to take away and we have had a (dead!) sample of the Asian hornet sent to us from a beekeeping friend in France so that you can see it side by side with our own native hornet. Do come and have a look so that you know what to be on the look out for. As always, with your questions, there is usually a beekeeper around if you need further information so don't hesitate to come and ask.

On a happier note, the new season's honeycomb and cappings are now available in our shop so if you are fond of these get them now as there is a limited supply.

There is still a lot of autumn colour in the pollinator garden and a few seeds of the magenta mallow for those of you wanting to grow your own. Lots of plans already being put into place for the garden next year and don't forget to come and try some of Scott's apple goodies, we've had a good crop from our trees this year.

We will be open until 17th December so: Come and be part of this Special Place.

KIDS' ROOMS: IDEAS FOR CREATING AN AMAZING SPACE FOR CHILDREN

By Gabrielle Fagan, Press Association

PLAY with the decor to reflect their personalities and transform a bedroom into an adventure wonderland.

'Why don't you go and play in your room?' It's a common refrain among even the most devoted (but exasperated) parents, especially during long school holidays.

But they won't argue about such banishment - in fact, it might be hard to get them to emerge - if that room's an exciting personalised space where the decor stimulates the imagination and they can explore their creativity, and it's a relaxing sanctuary.

Here are a few themes and styles to try in your child's bedroom...

Reach for the skies

Let your child's imagination soar with a space-inspired room, and who knows - they might grow up to follow in the footsteps of British astronaut Tim Peake.

"We've seen a huge increase in the amount of customers shopping for themed kid's bedrooms over the past year or so," says Nathalie Davis, director at Cuckooland .

"People realise this is a room their child will always remember and want it to be memorable and to reflect the taste they display in the rest of their home.

"Creating that 'wow' room, which they and their kids can boast about, is also down to the boom of social media and image-sharing platforms, such as Pinterest and Instagram, which are inspiring people to be more creative and push the boundaries when decorating their homes. Designing a kid's bedroom is a great opportunity to let your inner child run wild!

"Parents are recognising the benefits of consulting their children over the look of a room, seeing it as both a bonding experience and allowing children some control over their environment. We find this inevitably leads to some of the more colourful, exciting and unexpected purchases that make a space distinctive and unique."

Kit for kids:

Decor tip: Provide spaces for self-expression by painting a wall with blackboard paint, hanging up rolls of drawing paper, or making a large notice board by fixing cork tiles in a square to a wall and framing with simple painted wood strips.

Into the wild

Children love to 'camp' and create secret hideouts, and they can have that fun with furniture inspired by living in the great outdoors.

"One of our most popular themes is the camping/woodland style room, most commonly using our teepee cabin bed, tent bed or a tree house bed as the focal point," says Nathalie.

"We think that's because this theme is in keeping with the Scandi trend, as it embraces neutral tones and sleek contemporary design that so dominates interior design currently. It also incorporates fun and a sense of adventure and its attraction will endure because it's classic and not age or gender specific.

"A plain, timeless backdrop - maybe a wall papered in faux brick or wood panelling and a stripped wooden floor - suits this look and would be practical and easy on the eye."

Kit for kids:

Decor tip: Think outside the (toy) box. If your child's room is too small for play, look around the house to see if a small, unused space can be transformed. Kit out an understairs area with cushioned flooring, pillows and a curtain 'door'. A built-in storage box can double as a window seat/reading/hobby area on a landing.

On the move

"Children's bedrooms are the one area in the home where you can really indulge your imagination and theirs - so embrace the freedom," urges Paula Taylor, stylist for wallpaper specialists Graham & Brown.

"Your child's personality and preferences will impact on what you choose but I'd urge caution about anchoring a room totally to a particular TV or film character. The danger is fashions and fads fade fast and your child might be on to the next big thing before the character duvet set has hit the wash.

"A few accessories linked to the desired theme may be enough and can be easily changed. Invest in full-size furniture and then all that will be necessary is a few easy updates every few years.

"With wallpaper, something generic, such as geometrics, stripes or stars, will be a versatile and a non-distracting backdrop for as many settings as your child can dream up. For a combined bedroom/playroom, bold bright accents work well or a strong paper, like our punchy Marvel Action comic heroes, for a feature wall."

Kit for kids:

Decor tip: Tap into your child's hobbies for inspiration - whether that's book characters, sporting heroes, animals or skateboarding - and reflect that passion in posters or murals. Companies such as Not On The High Street have a range of easy-to-apply wall stickers.

THINKING OF SELLING BY AUCTION?

Did you know Mayfair also sell property by auction?
With a quick completion of 28 days and no buyer chains or mortgages to contend with, there are many benefits to selling in this way.

If you have a property you think would benefit from going to auction, contact us on 01460 74200 to discuss.

Vauxhall expands award-winning van range

VAUXHALL has expanded its popular Corsavan range with the addition of a new top-of-the-range Limited Edition NAV model. Available to order now, the new variant offers some of the latest technology and stylish exterior design features.

The new Corsavan Limited Edition NAV model features unique exterior graphics, as well as black wing mirrors, 16-inch Black Alloy Wheels and a Carbon Flash grille bar. The stylish new black accents have been designed to complement the Corsavan's full range of exterior colours (excluding Royal Blue and Metallic Black). The new model also marks the introduction of the Persian Blue exterior colour, which is offered exclusively on the Limited Edition NAV.

As well as a new look exterior, the new model trim will add Navi 4.0 IntelliLink connectivity to an already impressive list of standard technology. The updated system has a seven-inch colour touchscreen for easy navigation, with features including RDS with Traffic Programme, Eco Routing, DAB digital radio, and sat nav with European coverage. The unit's smartphone integration is compatible with Apple CarPlay and Android Auto, and enables USB connection, Bluetooth connectivity and A2DP audio streaming.

"This stylish new Corsavan will appeal to operators who want a small car-derived van that stands out from the crowd," said Steve Bryant, Vauxhall's Head of Commercial Vehicle Brand. "It's exceptionally well-equipped for its size, with features including Navi 4.0 IntelliLink connectivity with a seven-inch touchscreen."

All-new Compact-SUV heralds state-of-the-art design philosophy for MG

THE launch of MG's new Compact-SUV marks an exciting new era of design for the iconic company. The brand-new Compact-SUV is set to go on sale later this Autumn, representing a major step-change for MG.

The new MG design philosophy is based on 'Emotional Dynamism', which represents a more expressive design language that emphasises the premium nature of MG's latest model. The contemporary look harmoniously brings together the three key elements of 'Emotional', 'Humanised' and 'Agility' that accentuate the car's desirability, accessibility and dynamic stance.

One of the key design features is the compelling new face for MG, which features an enlarged, full frame grill, which was inspired by the famous brand's heritage, but executed in a contemporary way. It allows for a much bigger MG badge to take centre stage and showcase pride in the brand.

Carl Gotham, Design Director of SAIC European Design Centre, said: "It's a really exciting time for MG as it starts to roll out its new brand identity. Emotional Dynamism brings to the fore a premium feel to the new Compact-SUV with exceptional attention to detail throughout, such as the distinctive detailing on the 'eye' headlights and signature tail lights. It has a level of detailing and range of impressive features you would not expect to find on a car of this size or price."

MG Motor UK will be revealing more about the brand's new design direction closer to the full launch of the vehicle, which goes on sale this Autumn.

The all-new Compact-SUV will join the highly-praised MG3 and MG GS at a time when the iconic brand is recording an outstanding sales performance in 2017. Its sales were up by nearly 83% year-on-year in August, driven by its well-established, simple and transparent scrappage scheme.

MG Motor UK is championing consumers by providing them with exceptional choice, excellent value for money and a hassle-free buying process.

Project Neptune: Triton and Aston Martin

ASTON Martin is proud to announce a creative collaboration with Triton Submarines LLC, the acclaimed manufacturer of state–of-the-art submersibles. Codenamed Project Neptune, the venture enables Aston Martin to further enhance and grow the brand into new aspects of the luxury world, with all the performance, beauty and elegance one has come to expect from the British marque.

Triton has unparalleled expertise in the design, manufacture and operation of submersibles for researchers, explorers and superyacht owners. Founded in Florida by L. Bruce Jones and Patrick Lahey, the team at Triton are committed to producing the safest and best performing, deep-diving submersibles in the world.

Project Neptune marries Triton's diving and operational expertise with Aston Martin's design, materials, and craftsmanship. Overseen by Aston Martin Consulting, the partnership has shaped a unique concept that will lead to an exclusive, strictly-limited edition vehicle. Project Neptune takes Triton's acclaimed Low Profile (LP) three-person platform as a basis upon which to explore a new iteration of Aston Martin's progressive design language.

Aston Martin Executive Vice President and Chief Creative Officer Marek Reichman and his team have transformed Triton's compact LP platform, creating a vehicle with inherently beautiful proportions. "Project Neptune is defined by its sleek, elegant exterior," says Reichman, "we have used forms and proportions that express the same devotion to design, engineering and beauty that shape our cars, such as the Aston Martin Valkyrie hypercar project."

Patrick Lahey, President of Triton Submarines LLC said: "We have always admired Aston Martin. The marque represents a deeply held passion for technology, engineering and timeless, elegant design. From our first interaction, it was apparent that Triton and Aston Martin were natural partners and our complimentary values will be realised in this truly exciting project."

Aston Martin Consulting provides design, engineering and manufacturing services to select industries, distilling the brand's essence into exciting new projects without compromising Aston Martin's fundamental qualities. Aston Martin Consulting draws upon the exceptional skills of Aston Martin's design and engineering teams, creating credible partnerships that go beyond the automotive sector and yet still demonstrate the love of innovation, beauty and craftsmanship.

Aston Martin Consulting Managing Director, Bradley Yorke-Biggs said: "Project Neptune is a flagship project for Aston Martin Consulting. It is a clear and engaging demonstration of how Aston Martin's expertise in sports car design and craftsmanship can be extended into new aspects of the luxury world."

Stunning Kia Stinger gran turismo to cost from £31,995

THE stunning Kia Stinger, the company's first gran turismo and first rear-wheel-drive car in the UK, will cost from £31,995 when it goes on sale on January 1 next year. With pent-up demand reaching fever pitch, Kia is releasing pricing and specification details as the order books open.

Stinger evokes memories of the classic age of grand tourers, when the joy of the journey made getting to the final destination almost a disappointment, and the time to get from A to B almost insignificant.

The car has been six years in the making. It is based on the GT Concept from the 2011 Frankfurt Motor Show. There were times in the intervening period when it seemed as though the GT would never make it into production form, but Kia senior management were always enthusiastic about the idea: they simply wanted to wait until the time was right. That time is now.

Stinger will be a game-changer for Kia – a car to convince people, if anyone still needs convincing, that the company has put the days when it was a value-driven brand mainly concerned with durability and practicality behind it. Those attributes are still important, but Kias are now highly desirable in their own right. Stinger epitomises that.

There will be five versions, based on three trim grades (GT-Line, GT-Line S and GT-S) and three turbocharged engines. Heading the range is the GT-S, powered by a twin-turbo 365bhp 3.3-litre V6 T-GDi engine capable of taking the car from standstill to 60mph in only 4.7 seconds and on to a top speed of 168mph where allowed. The GT-S is priced from £40,495.

GT-Line and GT-Line S both offer the choice of a 244bhp 2.0-litre four-cylinder T-GDi engine or a 197bhp 2.2-litre CRDi turbodiesel capable of up to 50.4mpg, giving Kia's new gran turismo a touring range of more than 600 miles. All models drive the rear wheels through an eight-speed automatic gearbox with five different shift and throttle programmes and the option of full manual control using the steering wheel-mounted paddles.

All the luxuries expected of a gran turismo

Grand tourers are not sports cars. Rather, they are high-performance luxury cars designed to cover long distances with the maximum of comfort, safety and refinement, and all three trim lines for the Stinger reflect that.

All models have an 8.0-inch touch-screen navigation system with European mapping and a Traffic Messaging Channel to guide owners to wherever they feel like roaming. The screen is linked to Kia Connected Services with TomTom, giving traffic, weather and local search information, and even warning of speed cameras. Stinger can be connected to Android Auto and Apple CarPlay via a smartphone, has Bluetooth with voice recognition and music streaming and is equipped with a reversing camera, front and rear parking sensors and a 7.0-inch Thin Film Transistor (TFT) supervision cluster. A head-up display is also a standard feature, which displays speed and navigation instruction, a first for Kia in the UK. GT-Line S and GT-S also have a 360-degree around-view monitor.

GT-Line has a nine-speaker sound system with front under-seat subwoofer, while the other two trim grades feature a 15-speaker harman/kardon premium sound system with subwoofer, external amp and front centre speaker.

Standard safety features to assist drivers on long journeys include Autonomous Emergency Braking, Lane Keep Assist, Driver Attention Warning and Speed Limit Information. GT-Line S and GT-S also have Blind Spot Detection with Rear Cross Traffic Alert, and GT-S is fitted with Brembo brakes. A limited slip differential is standard, as is an Active Bonnet to protect the heads of pedestrians in the event of a collision.

GT-Line and GT-Line S have 18-inch alloy wheels with 225/45R18 tyres, while for GT-S the wheels are upgraded to 19 inches with tyres of 225/40R19 at the front and 225/35R19 at the rear. There are projection headlights on GT-Line, and full LED headlights on the other two trim grades. All versions have LED tail lamps and daytime running lights.

Leather upholstery in either black, grey or red is available on all trims, and in GT-S there is Nappa leather. Eight-way power-adjustable memory front seats are fitted to all models, along with a two-way power-adjustable cushion extender. Two-way side bolster adjustment is added in GT-S. The front seats are heated, along with the outer rear seats in GT-Line S and GT-S, which also have ventilated front seats. Adding to comfort and convenience is electrically operated tilt and telescopic steering wheel adjustment as standard across all grades.

There is a D-shaped leather-trimmed steering wheel and a leather and chrome gearshifter, leather on the dashboard and door armrests, an aluminium finish centre console, which also has a wireless phone charger, alloy pedals, stainless steel door scuff plates, suede headlining, dual automatic air conditioning, Smart Cruise Control with a speed limiter and a Smart Entry System with engine start/stop button. A powered tailgate is fitted to GT-Line S and GT-S.

GT-S has electronic suspension which can be set to one of five modes and variable gear ratio steering.

Stinger's standard paint finish is Sunset Yellow, while Pearl White, Midnight Black, Ceramic Silver, HiChroma Red and Panthera Metal are chargeable options.

Ax blunt Spurs, Hippos win too

SOUTH WEST PENINSULA LEAGUE

Newton Abbot 1
Axminster Town 2

A STUNNING two-goal burst ten minutes from time saw Axminster Town turnaround a possible defeat into an impressive away win at current league leaders Newton Abbot Spurs.

The first half ended 0-0 with The Tigers more than holding their own and creating the best chance when Nathan Warren was denied in a one-on-one opportunity.

But it was the Spurs who broke the deadlock ten minutes after the interval when Liam Moseley set up Ollie Aplin who slid the ball under Ax keeper Scott Wells-Burr.

With time ticking away Tigers manager Jon Hurford shuffled his pack introducing Jamie Barfoot and then himself off the bench.

And the changes soon paid off in spectacular fashion. Striker Tony Pinder was rewarded for yet another hard running performance when he struck the equaliser 10 minutes from time. And it got better for the visitors just seconds later when Pinder capitalised on some hesitant defending to pinch the winner.

After the game a delighted Hurford told View Sport: "Tony and Sam [Dibling] were a constant threat. Tony worked his socks off and deserved his goals, he is growing in confidence. The back three (Dan Beer, Shaun Wells-Burr and Mark Smale) were solid throughout, Shaun led the defensive line superbly."

Axminster (3-5-2): Scott Wells-Burr, Mark Smale, Dan Beer, Shaun Wells-Burr, Craig Every (Jamie Barfoot 65), Charley Skelton, Darren Hutchings (Capt, Mike Knight 81), Nathan Warren, Gary Spiller (Jon Hurford 75), Sam Dibling, Tony Pinder. Unused sub; Callum Garrett.

Axminster are set to welcome Torrington in the Devon Premier cup round one on Saturday (3pm).

Honiton Town 1
Galmpton & Roselands 0

AN Andy Isaacs penalty proved decisive in a scrappy affair at Mountbatten Park.

Honiton, boosted by the addition of new signings Andy Thompson and Ben Clay, went close from a couple of early corners before Blake Freemantle was scythed down in the area in the 16th minute and Isaacs made no mistake from the penalty spot.

The visitors went close with a header just over the bar while Ben Ede drilled a trademark long range effort just over the bar at the other end.

Honiton were grateful for a goal line clearance from Freemantle just before the interval while G&R thought they had a good shout for a penalty dismissed after a tackle from Dan Broom.

The visitors kept pressing for the equaliser after the turnaround and home keeper Matt Long was called into action with a superb save.

Freemantle went close with a range effort that was bravely blocked by the Galmpton keeper before Ede had a penalty appeal waved away and a late shot blocked while Tom Perryman fired over the bar late on.

Honiton*: Matt Long, Elliot Dyer, Dan Broom, Ben Ede, Ben Ashford (Capt), Lewis Couch, Blake Freemantle, Joe Dixon, Andy Isaacs, Tom Perryman, Chris Long. Subs; Aaron Doble, Andy Thompson, Ben Clay.*

Next up for Honiton is tomorrow's (Wednesday) trip to Budleigh Salterton followed by Saturday's Devon Premier cup tie at home against Beer Albion.

MACRON DEVON & LEAGUE

Seaton Town 0 Cronies FC 5

East Devon Senior Cup

SEATON looked to overcome a poor start to the season in the East Devon Senior Cup tie on Saturday but visiting side Cronies had other ideas and led 2-0 at half time.

A third goal after the break prompted home manager Brendon Willey to stick an extra man up front and switch to the more classic 4-4-2 to try and have a different outlet up front.

This seemed to work as they created more going forward but this led to some defensive issues as Cronies capitalised twice to seal a comfortable win. Danny Pym (3), Liam Carey and Rian Antat scored for the visitors

Beer Albion 2 Feniton 2

BEER and Feniton shared the spoils in a Macron Premier Division match at the Furzebrake writes Richard Honnor.

Fenny had a strong wind at their backs in the first half and penned Beer in their own half for long periods.

But the visitors failed to turn this advantage into goals with Beer's back four defending resolutely. Centre backs Kieron Love and Andrew Foster were in commanding form but the star was young full back Jack Prior who snuffed out the threat of Fenny's tricky left winger.

Two minutes after the break Beer striker Chris Long's 30-yard lob hit the bar.

The visitors took the lead in the 55th minute when keeper Mark Rooke mispunched a long ball straight to a Ben Allen who made no mistake from 15 yards.

The Fishermen equalised on 59 minutes. George Harwood's cross found Long who placed a powerful header past Fenny keeper Matt Kingdon.

Beer were now on top but Kingdon kept his side in the game, first cleverly forcing Walker to go wide as he tried to go round the keeper and then producing a magnificent save to deny Long's spectacular 20-yard volley.

Beer took the lead on 64 minutes through Pedro Fontes.

But when centre half Love handled Charlie Selley made no mistake from the resulting 85th minute penalty.

Match sponsor Beer Fish Shop awarded MoM to Jack Prior.

For Feniton, keeper Kingdon and midfielder Selley shone.

Next Saturday, Beer 2nds entertain Newton St Cyres 2nds in D&E Division Five (3pm) match sponsor is Woozie's Deli, Beer.

Millwey Rise 5 Halwill Rs 2

MILLWEY Rise came from behind to progress in the Football Express cup on Saturday writes Dick Sturch.

The visitors took the lead on the half hour when Rory Tucker nodded home a firm header and went close again with another effort that rattled the upright.

In the second half a Jack Farrant shot thudded against the Halwill bar. But Millwey drew level when Tyler Warren fed a ball through to Womersley who drilled it home.

Millwey moved ahead when Keith Forsey curled a great shot into the net from 25 yards. Rise moved further ahead after 70 minutes when Farrant lobbed the keeper.

New signing Brad-Lee Miller quickly slotted home a pass from Womersly to further increase Rise' lead.

Halwill reduced the arrears direct from James Wilsden free kick but the final goal went to the home side when Matt Lewis nodded home.

Round-up with
Collin Goodwin &
Howard Larcombe

JUST 16 months ago Topsham Town were crowned Premier champions and went on to win Devon FA's Throgmorton Champions Cup.

On Saturday the 'Tops' crashed 9-1 at home to Newtown, the team they pipped to the title – and Topsham now feel that they have reached a point where things can only get better.

There was a remarkable ending to the Bill Slee Cup tie at Newton Poppleford where, after 90 minutes, the score stood at 4-4 only for visitors Whipton & Pinhoe to step up two gears and win 8-4 in extra time.

Lyme Regis continue to set the pace in Division One, winning 5-2 at Bickleigh. Sam Pollard-Jones (2), Dec Ellis, Kieren Daniels and Keiren White netted for The Seasiders.

Ottery St Mary beat Pinhoe, 3-2 in Division Three with goals from James Gosney, Connor Lovering and Corey Ringer.

In the Football Express Cup Lyme Regis won 3-2 after extra time at Central. Finlay Mclean put Lyme ahead after keeper Will Meech had saved an early penalty.

The hosts led 2-1 before Steve Batey netted an injury time penalty and Harvey Brimicome smashed home the 119th minute winner.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE
Division One

Hawkchurch Utd 5
Drimpton 1

THE Hawks opted to go against the wind in the first half and try and dig in and tire Drimpton for the second half.

They had the bonus of two goals from Josh Short who could have had a couple more too.

The Hawks, boosted by the elements took control after the interval and scored three more. Short completed his hat trick while skipper Gavin Herrod and Brad Pearse chipped in with the others.

Home keeper James Mitcham saved a penalty late while left back Rowan Short was MoM.

Ilminster Colts 1 Farway Ud 1

FARWAY United banked a useful away Division One point courtesy of another goal from in-form striker Ben Fullick.

Rob Keylock scored the equaliser for the hosts before half time. Farway were also indebted to a superb penalty save by keeper Phil Woodley.

Finally, the Farway Reserves went down 4-2 at Division Three promotion contenders Ilminster Town A. Louis Addey and Jacob Murphy scored for farway

Next week's fixtures (all 2.30pm): Hawkchurch Utd v Farway Utd (D1), Farway Utd Res v Netherbury Res.

Beer blaze trail with big win

EIGHT teams competed in Division Two of the new Honiton Netball League season on Monday, September 25th writes Steph Upson.

BEER BLAZERS had a triumphant win against new team JURASSICS – some of whom previously played for the now disbanded Swaggamamas.

By the end of the first quarter Blazers had stormed 13-1 ahead. The rest of the game continued along the same lines despite some skilful interceptions by Karen Bennett and the Blazers, with Ash Taylor in fine form, ran out 48-2 winners.

Another big win came from the SIDMOUTH EAGLES who defeated HNC HONEYZ 50-12. From start to finish, Kate Marriott (centre for Eagles) continuously found good spaces and this earnt her the Player of the Match (POTM) award.

Honeyz' inexperience showed with some fumbled balls which the Eagles quickly took advantage of.

Despite some good pressure from Honeyz' Samantha Siggers and Louise Welch (POTM), the Eagles seem to be a force to be reckoned with, especially as many of their players showed such versatility - often swapping positions. Em Rich stood out not only for her shooting, but also for her defensive work when in as GK.

In the TORNADOS and PIXIES match, the teams seemed fairly well matched, with Pixies pipping new team Tornados to the post due to having more accurate shooting.

Tornados made effective short, quick passes but couldn't always find the net despite Tasha Matthews (GS) and Gayle Snook (GA) working well together.

In the third quarter, there were excellent interceptions and defending especially from Tornados' POTM and GD – Laura Dollman. In the final quarter Pixies appeared to show a new lease of life and scored their most goals led by goal attack, Emily Heighway to run out 27-6 winners.

The SIGNS SOUTH WEST game against CRANBROOK was the closest of the evening with the Signs winning 37-24.

In the first quarter, Signs led 6-0 and they continued to keep a lead despite some fine attacking and defensive work from Lisa Malton for Cranbrook who was a dynamic presence as C and WA earning her the POTM award.

Meanwhile, her opponent – Caroline Briggs as C – received POTM for Signs.

It was a calm match with both teams showing upmost respect for the umpires which is reflected in both teams being awarded 10 points for Fair Play.

Four teams from Division One were in action last Monday. OTTERS proved too strong for the newly promoted PANTHERS winning 55-12.

Otters kept control throughout with Lucy Burch pulling the strings as wing attack. Otters were particularly on form in the third quarter when they netted an impressive 19 goals in the 12 minutes despite a fine defensive display from Rachel Burrow of Panthers.

Finally, the FLAMINGOS took an early lead against TOUCANS and were the dominant side throughout winning 51-20. Toucans' Louise Neilson was the star of the show having played both as goal shooter and goal defence.

Karen Hall showcased skilful shooting as GS which earnt her the POTM award.

Reverse at the Rectory

Devonport Services 27
Chard 5
Western Counties (W)

CHARD suffered their first defeat of the season at Plymouth on Saturday in what is believed to be the first match between these two clubs at Devonport's Rectory Stadium writes Glyn Hughes.

Chard had an awful start knocking on when receiving the kick off and from the resultant scrum Devonport went ahead with a converted try in the corner from Toby Knowles.

The game was played in the most atrocious conditions with wind and rain being a significant factor throughout.

Chard were playing against the elements in the first half and were pinned back in their own half for long periods.

To a man the Chard players defended heroically, but were rarely a threat going forward and they also lost a player to the bin for 10 minutes.

Skipper for the day Max Gosden, Jason Wright, Nick Hyslop and Joe Mainwaring were particularly outstanding.

Midway through the half Knowles added a second try and right on the half time whistle Rhys Williams went over for try number three which was converted to give the hosts a 19-0 lead at half time.

Chard had more of the play in the second half despite having already used their three replacements because of injuries.

They pulled a try back when Mainwaring darted over having taken a quick penalty but this was to be their only score.

A penalty in front of the posts and a last minute try from Fijian prop Miqa Waga, who had struggled against Chard prop Liam Mustchin in the tight, sealed a comfortable victory for Devonport.

A long injury list and player unavailability to travel did not help the Chard cause.

Next Saturday Chard welcome Falmouth (3pm).

Down in the Somerset Division Two (S) Chard 2nds were beateb 34-10 by Winscombe 2nds. The Chard 2nds visit Somerton on Saturday.

Chard 3rd 32
Crewkerne 2nd 31
Somerset Division Three (S)

CREWKERNE turned up several players short but Chard were able make up their team.

Stuart Sugar and Tom Hopkins gave Chard an early lead but a converted try from Crewkerne made the score 10-7 at half time.

Another unconverted try put Chard further ahead but a second converted try brought Crewkerne to within a point.

However tries from James Herbert, Sugar, and Nathan Clapp and a conversion put Chard well clear at 32-14.

A late flurry from Crewkerne's loan players made for an exciting finish with Chard just holding on for a narrow victory.

The Chard 3rd xv are away at Wyvern next Saturday.

CHARD Ladies had Sunday's game won by half time with a 6-0 lead.

Charlie Carver-Bale opened the scoring and a Kerryn Mullis put them in control. A double from Lois Butcher and one from Ros Clemmens made up the half time half dozen goal tally.

Butcher completed he hat trick after the turnaround and Clemmens rounded things off with number eight.

Special thanks go to Izzie Harding-Perrott for playing for the opposition as they were a player short.

Relay final experience

FOUR members of Chard & District Swimming Club took part in the Swim England, South West Regional Relay team competition held at the Plymouth Life Centre recently writes Caroline Lambert.

The of Millie Downs, 13, Briana Barrand, 13, Grace Lambert, 12 and Abi Greenslade, 13 competed against much larger clubs from across the region, such as Bristol, Exeter, Poole and Mount Kelly but the Chard team held their own.

Their outstanding performance saw them win their 4x100m Freestyle heat, taking seventh place in the final and coming 6th in the 4x100m Medley relay.

Anybody interesting in joining the club must be aged six plus and be able to confidently swim 25m (one length) front crawl, have reasonable skills in two other strokes and are interested in competitive swimming visit www.chardswimmingclub.org.uk for more information and a free trial.

Sessions are held at Flamingo Pool in Axminster, Cresta Pool, Chard and Aqua Centre at Crewkerne.

HONITON
with Ann Desmoulins
Tuesday Mixed

THERE was a smaller than usual field for the Tuesday Mixed but a pleasant afternoon was had by everyone in our monthly drawn greensomes.

Winning the Centenary Goblets this month were Carole Booth & Bob Barnes with 34 points. Steph Barnes & Cyril Dann came second with 32, narrowly beating Andrea Squire & Ken Wood into third place on countback.

Ladies Section

There was a rather small entry for last week's competition, as many of the ladies were playing in the SW Vets Autumn Field Day at Lyme Regis.

The home competition was a Foursomes Stableford including the Daily Mail Foursomes - always a tricky format, with pairs playing alternate shots, so a great understanding between partners is very necessary.

Only four pairs entered the Daily Mail event with the winners being Jane Watts & Henrietta Bradshaw with 31 points and runners-ups Olwen Eaton & Heather Clarke (30).

Eight pairs entered the club foursomes which was also won by Jane Watts & Henrietta Bradshaw with Olwen Eaton & Heather Clarke once again the runners-up.

There were only five entries for the nine-hole Stableford.

The Christopher Cup final, played the previous weekend was won in fine style by Cathy Pawley who beat Janet Hughes.

There was no Seniors Club meeting last week. In the final week of Senior matches, a visit to LONG SUTTON produced a 5-1 loss on Monday but in the home match against LYME REGIS on Tuesday Mike Sennitt's team did rather better winning 3½-2½ after Kit Barker solved the problem of a missing player.

CRICKET ST THOMAS
with Bert Robinson

LAST Monday, 42 Seniors played in a three man waltz competition, With the greens still recovering from the autumn treatment, scoring proved difficult.

David Taylor's team was the best managed with 82 points seeing them home by a margin of seven points.

A thrilling tie ensued with Frank Martin's trio just taking second place by virtue of a better back nine.

Result: 1st David Taylor; Ron Sutherland & John Livens 82 points, 2nd Frank Martin; Alan Teasdale & Trevor Dobson 75, 3rd Bob Barrow; Bob White & Bryan Frost 75.

On Wednesday, 42 members entered a three man bowmaker tournament under similar conditions.

Result; 1st Alan Chance; Quinny Lawrence & Stuart Forbes 70 points, 2nd John Wallis; Bob Rees & Robin Flower 69, 3rd Martin Leigh; Ed Paolini & John Pearce 68.

Meanwhile, the Saints Senior match team entertained The Dorset Golf Club.

Results: Stone & Potter lost 5&4, Wandless & Gage won 2&1, Gingell & Beale won 4&3, Wallace & Pope won 3&1, Griffiths & Hodder lost by 2 holes, R, Davis & Singleton won 5&4.

Meanwhile, 30 seniors attended the 4ball better ball competition on Friday.

The heavy overnight rain made the going difficult, but later improved weather saw some fine scoring.

Result; 1st James Siabi & Mike Hone 42 points, 2nd John Chance & Peter Spencer-Farr 40, 3rd John Wandless & Terry Hackling 40.

AXE CLIFF with Dave Bruce
Ladies Section

IT was a very busy week for the club's Ladies. On Monday Helen Kenworthy, Glenda Board, Caroline Bond and Janet Dack represented the club at the County Warren Crocus Foursomes.

■ TOP TWO: Tuesday Mixed Winners at Honiton Golf Club Carole Booth and Bob Barnes

In the Silver Division Helen & Glenda came 11th out of 29 and in the Bronze Division Caroline & Janet were 12th again out of a field of 29.

Also on Monday a small group played a friendly against Sidmouth Ladies. All three games very close but Axe Cliff just managed to hold on and won two games and halved the other.

Last Tuesday saw the staging of the final of the Devon League between Bovey Tracey and Tiverton. After six games it was 3-3 and the final match went to the 18th where a third Tiverton player lost her ball which left Bovey Tracey overall victors.

On Wednesday the ladies competed in the fifth round of the Axe Cliff Cup with best three scores to count played under medal rules.

There Tough conditions and again a close contest with winner Stella Thompson netting a great 77, closely beating Captain Jo Donmall and Jill Wellington into second and third places respectively.

Also on Wednesday Sandra Walker played brilliantly at Lyme Regis coming in second in the Silver Division of the SWest Vets Autumn meeting.

Seniors

THE Winter League began on Friday over the usual 15 holes with fair conditions resulting in excellent scores.

Adrian Bishop, ably supported by Bob Berry, were this week's winners on 36 points. Close behind came young Gilbert Cox & Robbie Robinson with 35. In third place, on countback, were Mick Swann & John Mant also with 35.

Some wonderful drives left Rob Grove and Robbie Robinson short putts to both get a two each.

A mention must be made of newcomer John Purdy, partnering Dave Bruce, who battled on despite nursing a very painful arm.

Chris Keeffe travelled to Portland to take part in the Osprey Sprint Triathlon looking to improve on his second attempt at the sport. With a 300m pool swim followed by a very hilly 17k bike and a dead flat 5k Chris finished 72nd out of the 165 finishers with a total time of 1.19.03 and splits 7.44, 44.31 and 24.09.

HONITON RC with Judy Davey

AXE Valley Community College's 7.5mile off-road MINSTER CHALLENGE took place on Sunday with numbers thinner on the ground than in previous years.

The going was very muddy following heavy rainfall.

James Denne won the race in 47 minutes 53 seconds and Ben Stone was the first runner back for Honiton in 7th place (54:10).

Rod Inglis came 13th in 1:00:05 and although Steve Davey was only one place later he was over four minutes behind finishing in 1:04:23.

First HRC lady back was Judy Davey (19th) in 1:08:39 with daughter Jo finishing just 10 seconds later. There were 35 finishers.

HRC's Jasmine and Harri Stone took part in the 3k race. Jasmine finished second overall and 1st female in 22:40. Harri was not far behind coming ninth in 28:11.

The winner was Daniel Rowe who finished in 21:30 and there were 20 finishers.
